Managing Floodplain Development through the National Flood Insurance Program

Date:

September 8-11, 2014

The Certified Floodplain Manager (CFM) Exam will be offered on September 12, 2014, for those who are interested in taking it. In order to take this exam, you must register for it by August 29 (you will receive registration information in your confirmation email).

Location:

Eugene, OR

Course Description:

FEMA Region X and the Association of State Floodplain Managers (ASFPM) are hosting this course, which is designed for local officials responsible for administering their local floodplain management ordinance. The course will focus on the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP) and concepts of floodplain management, maps and studies, ordinances administration, and the relationship between floodplain management and flood insurance.

Target Audience:

Local officials responsible for administering local floodplain management ordinances, including but not limited to floodplain management administration, building inspectors, code enforcement/zoning officers, planners, city/county managers, attorneys, engineers, and public works officials. Federal/State/Regional floodplain managers are also encouraged to attend. The course is designed for those officials with less than three years of floodplain management experience.

Funding:

Tuition is free for those accepted; there are no travel/salary stipends available for this offering and all incurred costs are the responsibility of the attendee or sending organization.
